About Programme

This programme is offered by the department of Pharmacognosy, RCIPIER, Shirpur. It is intended to train the faculty members who are involved in teaching and herbal research. The interaction and training comprises of newer and advanced techniques of isolation, standardization and analysis of medicinal plants. The focus of STTP is to provide hands on training on newer and sophisticated analytical techniques along with fundamental concepts and methods of isolations of pure phytochemicals using chromatographic techniques. The STTP will increase attentiveness of Pharmacognosists towards newer approaches and their applications in herbal drug research.

About RCIPIER...

R.C. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (RCPIPER) Shirpur has been accredited by NBA, New Delhi for full period of six years for its 3rd cycle and ranked in top 50 institutes during last 4 years by National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) - MHRD, New Delhi. Our endeavour for quality education and excellence in the field has been endorsed by NAAC, Bangalore. RCIPIER was established before 26 years under the aegis of The Shirpur Education Society catering the education from diploma in Pharmacy to doctoral research.

RCPIPER proudly flaunts its excellent infrastructure, well-furnished air-conditioned classrooms, ultramodern research laboratories, CPCSEA registered animal house, cell culture laboratory, molecular modelling software & facility, central instrumentation facility, modern herbal research laboratory, advanced molecular pharmacology facilities and GMP compliant pharmaceuticals pilot plant..

Department of Pharmacognosy

Since its inception in the year 2003, the department has emerged as a center of academic excellence and research activities. The Department faculty members have received more than one crore rupees as research grant from AICTE, RGSTC and UGC etc. The department has developed ultramodern facilities like UV-Vis spectroscopy, CAMAG High Performance Thin Layer Chromatography (HPTLC), Agilent 1260 Semi-preparative High Performance Liquid Chromatography (HPLC), MOTIC digital microscope, CombiFlash Flash Chromatography, Buchi Rotary evaporator.

Theme and contents of STTP

This STTP will has interactive sessions conducted by the resources invited from industry and academia who have vast experience and expertise in the ethnopharmacology, extraction strategies, spectroscopic and chromatographic applications in herbal research, newer approaches in standardization and quality control of herbal medicine. The training will includes ..

1. Photo documentation of histological features of medicinal plants
2. Different extraction techniques of herbal medicine.
3. Marker based qualitative and quantitative HPTLC & HPLC analysis of herbal medicine.
4. Fractionation of crude extracts using CombiFlash chromatography.
5. Isolation of Phytochemicals using Semi-preparative HPLC

Resource Persons

We are inviting, experts, scientists and eminent professors from esteemed Institute and pharmaceutical companies.
